

The front page serves as your communication center for personal alerts and announcements, and provides simplified menus for easy access to student registration and financial services.

HELP provides more info about InTouch and how to use it.

Convenience links to other university services.

Quick Links access to frequently used tasks.

Menu reflects groupings of related functions. Click to expand detailed tasks

Your picture confirms you are logged in.

Academic program info for your most recent or upcoming term.

Advisors listed, with convenient links to email.

The screenshot shows the PennInTouch front page with the following sections:

- Navigation: Home | HELP | Registrar | Student Financial Services | Campus Express | PennPortal | Webmail | Contact us | Log out
- Front page: Alerts: Action items for you (e.g., "You do not have a Student Emergency Phone Number on file..."), Announcements (e.g., "Welcome to the NEW Penn InTouch..."), Class schedule for Fall 2009, Important dates and deadlines, View 3-year academic calendar, Protect your privacy.
- Quick links: Registration and planning, Academic Records, Student billing account, Financial aid, Student loans, Student employment.
- Left sidebar menu: Registration & planning, Academic records, Student billing account, Financial aid, Student loans, Student employment, Profile, privacy & emergency, Course absence reports, Return to front page.
- User profile: Fall 2009, Division: COL, Degree: BA, Major: UNDC, Exp grad: Spring 2013, Spec pgm, Academic Advisor: COL, College Contact: COL.

Personal Alerts remind you of important issues, such as registration holds or missing emergency contacts.

Announcements from Student Registration & Financial Services.

Important dates for registration, financial aid and billing.

Click to expand your schedule, then click on a course for more details.