How to Request Loans: Undergraduate

1. Log in to Path@Penn. The website is: https://srfs.upenn.edu/path-at-penn
2. Find the financial services rectangle and click on "My Financial Aid."
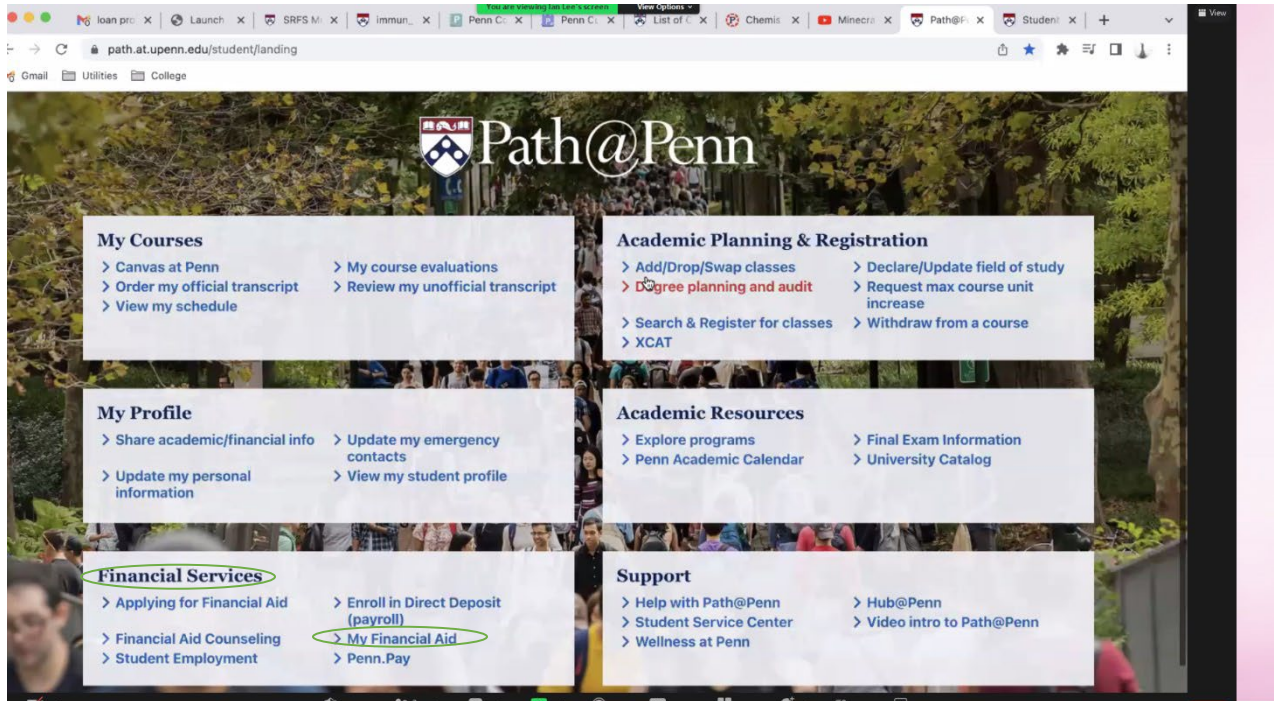

3. After you click on my financial aid, it will redirect you to a new page.
4. At the top of the screen you will want to select "Resources."
5. Find the box where it states "If you are interested in your potential student loan eligibility for this school year click here." This will take you to your loans page to activate the loan offer.
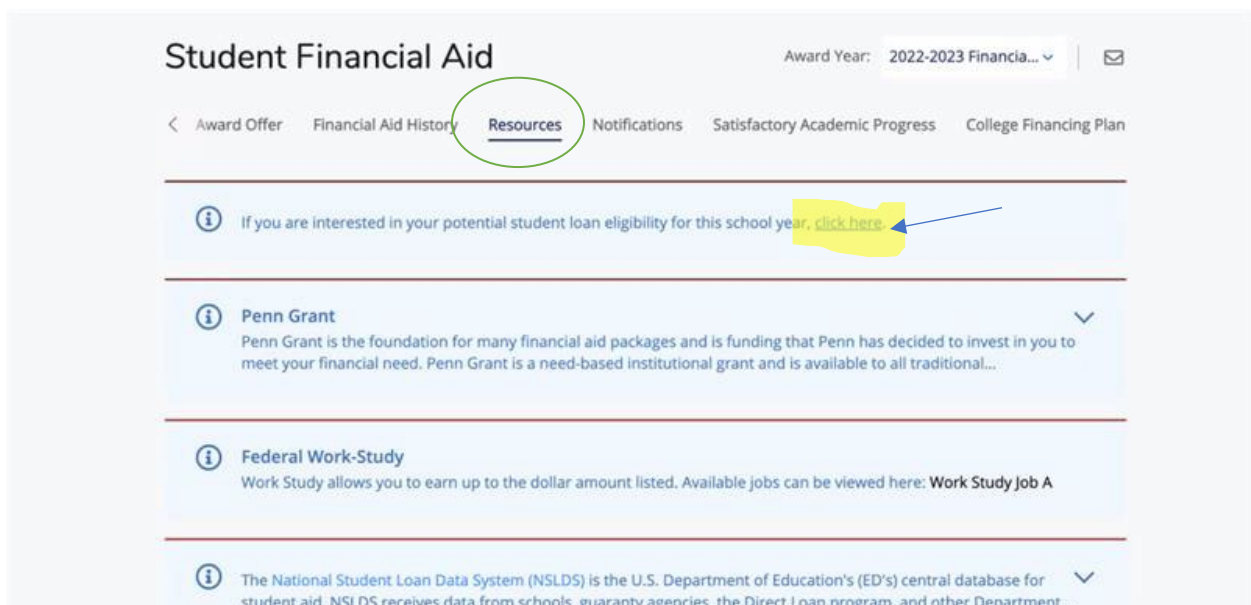

6. This is what the next page looks like:

Federal Loan Eligibility

Total Federal Loan Eligibility: $5,500.00

Aid Year	Fund	Eligibility Amount	Status
2223	FDLS - Federal Dir Ln Sub	$3,500.00	Activate Loan Offer
2223	FDLU - Federal Dir Ln Unsub	$2,000.00	Activate Loan Offer

Your federal loan eligibility is listed here. By activating your loan offer you are indicating you wish to borrow federal loans. You will then need to navigate to the award offer section of your self-service portal to choose an option from the "take action" dropdown. You must then submit your request via self-service.

Interest on Subsidized Direct Loans begins to accrue 6 months after your last date of attendance, or if you drop below half-time status. Interest on Unsubsidized Direct Loans begins to accrue once funds have been disbursed.

A change in student enrollment status or financial aid may affect your eligibility for loan funding.

7. Students will have to activate loan offer and then the loan offer gets moved to the "award offer" section on the previous page.
